ARTICLE VIII

UNIT ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES

Section 1. Units shall be chartered by the National President and National Secretary upon receipt of the charter application properly executed with printed names of the applicants on the original, and accompanied by the per capita dues and individual membership record forms. Application for Unit Charters shall be signed by the Department President and by the Commander and Adjutant of The American Legion Post to which the Unit is attached.

Section 2. The minimum membership of a Unit shall be ten (10) Senior members.

Section 3. A Unit shall be given the name and the number of The American Legion Post to which it is attached.

Section 4. Each Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary shall be responsible for verifying eligibility and determining its membership. No person who is a member of an organization which has for its aim the overthrow of the United States Government or who subscribes to the principles of any group opposed to our form of government, shall be eligible to become or remain a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Section 5. Unit officers can be President, Vice President, Secretary and/or Treasurer, Chaplain, Historian, Sergeant-at-Arms or offices as deemed necessary.

Section 6. Unit officers shall be elected annually prior to Department Convention. The officers shall assume the duties of their office following Department Convention.

Section 7. There can be an Executive Committee which shall consist of the officers and three additional members elected by the Unit.

Section 8. The annual dues of the Unit shall be determined by the Unit and shall include Department and National dues.

Section 9. No person may, at any time, be a member of more than one (1) Unit.

Section 10. Any member with current dues wishing to transfer to another Unit must present her membership card to the new Unit. Upon acceptance of the transfer application by the new Unit, the Unit Secretary will complete the Certification of Transfer on the member Data Form and send to Department Headquarters. The member shall then be entitled to active membership in the new Unit. No dues shall be transferred.

Section 11. The Department Executive Committee may suspend or revoke the charter of any Unit which violates the National Constitution and Bylaws or any specific action of the National Convention or the National Executive Committee. When a Unit has its charter revoked, or when it ceases to function, all Unit records and funds shall be immediately sent to Department Headquarters.

Section 12. The Department Executive Committee, after notice and hearing, may suspend or revoke the charter of a Unit which violates the Constitution and Bylaws of the Department. The Unit may appeal to the National Executive Committee. Units failing to have ten (10) Senior members for two (2) consecutive years shall be suspended from Convention action the first year and shall have their charter revoked the second year.

Section 13. For conduct prejudicial to the welfare of the American Legion Auxiliary or The American Legion, any member may be expelled from membership or any officer removed from office by a two-thirds vote at a Unit meeting duly called for that purpose. The member shall have been given thirty (30) days notice in writing of the charges and the hearings by the Unit Executive Committee. Either party may have the right to appeal to the Department Executive Committee whose decision shall be final.

ARTICLE IX

DEPARTMENT HEADQUARTERS UNIT

Section 1. A Department Headquarters Unit is organized to serve as a holding Unit only for those members who wish to maintain their American Legion Auxiliary membership, but who are not currently identified with a Unit. Members are not included in any Unit, District or Division membership quota.

Section 2. Members of the Department Headquarters Unit shall not have a voice or vote at any level of the organization.

Section 3. A Department Headquarters Unit shall have the same Unit number as the Department Headquarters Post. This Unit shall not require a charter nor shall any member be considered a charter member.

Section 4. A Department Headquarters Unit shall have no minimum membership requirement.

Section 5. The yearly dues of the Department Headquarters Unit shall be determined by the Department Executive Committee and shall include Department and National dues and Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Fair Share.

Section 6. No member of the Department Headquarters Unit shall be a delegate nor alternate to the Department or National Convention nor be eligible to hold a Department office.

ARTICLE X

FINANCES

Section 1. The revenue of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of North Carolina, Inc., shall be derived from annual membership dues and from other sources as may be determined by the Department Convention or Department Executive Committee.

Section 2. Dues shall be payable annually for the succeeding calendar year.

A member failing to pay annual dues by January thirty-first of the current membership year shall be delinquent and suspended from membership privileges. A member failing to pay dues by December thirty-first of the current membership year shall be classified as delinquent. A delinquent member may rejoin as an active member under her original membership without interruption of her continuous years, and her membership privileges reinstated, by payment of all past dues.

A member deemed delinquent for failing to pay dues by December thirty-first of the current membership year may rejoin, with a new join date, at any time in the future by re-establishing eligibility and making application as a new member.

Member applications and member reinstatements may require Unit action.

Section 3. The amount of annual Department dues shall be determined by the Department Convention.

Section 4. All annual dues including National and Department dues shall be collected by each unit and remitted to the Department Secretary-Treasurer. When National dues are increased Units shall automatically include this increase in the funds transmitted to the Department.

Section 5. Each administration shall operate on a budget prepared by the incoming Finance Committee and adopted by the Department Convention. Budget items shall be reduced if it becomes evident that anticipated revenue will not be received. Any change during the year shall be approved by the Department Executive Committee. The previous year's surplus balances in the Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Fund, the Children and Youth Fund, and the General Fund can be used to provide monies for the proposed budgets of these programs.

Section 6. The Headquarters Staff is bonded by a local insurance agency.

Section 7. The State Headquarters Committee shall supervise the State Headquarters Fund. This fund shall be used to purchase equipment, maintenance contracts and services.

Section 8. Department Officers, Chairmen of Standing Committees and Hospital Representatives shall be allowed expenses as specified in the adopted budget.

Section 9. The immediate Past Department President, Department President, and Department Secretary-Treasurer shall be allowed plane fare and per diem while attending National Convention as specified in the adopted budget.

Section 10. The registration fee of delegates and alternates to National Convention shall be paid by the Department. This amount shall be included in the adopted budget.

Section 11. The Department Convention and Conference registration fees shall be determined by the Finance Committee.

Section 12. The fiscal year of the Department shall close June 30

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS

Section amendment adopted by the National Convention.

1. The Bylaws shall be automatically amended to conform to any amendment adopted by the National Convention.

Section 2. The Bylaws may be amended at any Department Convention by a two-thirds vote of the Department Convention delegates, provided the proposed amendments have been distributed from the Department Secretary-Treasurer to all Units and members of the Department Executive Committee twenty (20) days prior to the convening of the next Department Convention and provided all proposed amendments shall be read at a regular meeting of the Department Convention. Units shall be responsible for distributing the proposed amendments to their Department Convention Delegates.

Section 3. Amendments proposed after distribution by the Department Secretary-Treasurer may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Department Convention delegates provided they have been read at one meeting of the session prior to taking the vote.

Section 4. An amendment not having been previously read or distributed may be adopted by unanimous vote of the Department Convention delegates.

Section 5. All amendments shall go into effect upon adoption unless the amendment states a specific date.

ARTICLE XII

AUTHORITY

The authority under which this Department and Units of the American Legion Auxiliary shall function is vested in the National and Department Constitution and Bylaws and in such Standing Rules as have been adopted and set forth in the Department Constitution and Bylaws. Any Unit Constitution and Bylaws or any regulations of the Unit in conflict with the foregoing authority shall be void.
